Extending our deepest sympathies to the victims of the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake

TASAKI Online Charity Project
MAGOKORO JAPAN 2016 for KUMAMOTO
Donation Report

TASAKI (TASAKI & Co., Ltd.; Kobe Headquarter Office: 6-3-2 Minatojima Nakamachi, Chuo-ku, Kobe; Tokyo Headquarter Office: 5-7-5 Ginza, Chuo-ku, Tokyo; Board Director & CEO: Toshikazu TAJIMA) is delighted to report that we've donated the total sales amount of ¥1,240,000 (for breakdown see below) from the "TASAKI Online Charity Project 'MAGOKORO JAPAN' 2016 for KUMAMOTO" to the Kumamoto Prefecture as the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake contribution on February 28th, 2017.

The "TASAKI Charity Project 'MAGOKORO JAPAN'" was first initiated in 2011 to support the victims of the Great East Japan Earthquake. Each year, TASAKI has created special jewellery featuring multiple hearts nestled together to represent a strong love and bond, and donates all of the proceeds directly to group that work with victims of the Great East Japan Earthquake. And since 2016, TASAKI has started to support those affected by the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake which occurred in the same year.

TASAKI is committed to helping people rebuild their lives in the aftermath of the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake through the "TASAKI Charity Project 'MAGOKORO JAPAN' for KUMAMOTO".
