Extending our deepest sympathies to the victims of the Great East Japan Earthquake

TASAKI Online Charity Project "MAGOKORO JAPAN 2016"

Donation Report

TASAKI (TASAKI & Co., Ltd.; Kobe Headquarter Office: 6-3-2 Minatojima Nakamachi, Chuo-ku, Kobe; Tokyo Headquarter Office: 5-7-5 Ginza, Chuo-ku, Tokyo; Board Director & CEO: Toshikazu TAJIMA) is delighted to report that we've donated the total sales amount of 2,970,000 JPY (for breakdown see below) from the "TASAKI Online Charity Project 'MAGOKORO JAPAN' 2016" launched on March 11th, 2016 to the Cultural and Sports Support Organization for the Great East Japan Earthquake Orphans (3.11 Juku) on January 31st, 2017.

The 3.11 Juku organization (<http://311juku.jp>) provides continuing support to children affected by the Great East Japan Earthquake, by bringing together professional organizations from various fields to help the children to achieve their very own hopes and dreams.

The "TASAKI Charity Project 'MAGOKORO JAPAN'" was first initiated in 2011 to support the victims of the Great East Japan Earthquake. Each year, TASAKI has created special pieces featuring multiple hearts nestled together to represent a strong bond of love, and donates all of the proceeds directly to groups that work with victims of the Great East Japan Earthquake.

TASAKI is committed to helping people rebuild their lives in the aftermath of the Great East Japan Earthquake through the "TASAKI Charity Project 'MAGOKORO JAPAN'".

Total donation: 2,970,000 JPY

"MAGOKORO Japan 2016" Bracelet (18,000 JPY tax excluded)

Total sales: 165 pieces
