Event to Commemorate the Launch of the "TASAKI x Land of the Lustrous" Jewellery Collection Held at Hankyu Umeda Main Store

TASAKI (TASAKI & Co., Ltd.; Kobe Headquarter office: 6-3-2 Minatojima Nakamachi, Chuo-ku, Kobe; Tokyo Headquarter office: 5-7-5 Ginza, Chuo-ku, Tokyo; Board Director & CEO: Toshikazu TAJIMA) will hold the event "TASAKI x Land of the Lustrous" on Kotokoto Stage 11 on the first floor of the Hankyu Umeda Main Store (8-7 Kakuda-cho, Kita-ku, Osaka), from Wednesday, October 4th to Tuesday, October 10th. This event follows the success of the events which were held at The Stage on the 1st floor of Isetan Shinjuku department store's main building and TASAKI Ginza Flagship Store during August 2017.

Continue to enjoy the jewellery collection and special display born out of a collaboration between TASAKI and "Land of the Lustrous" (scheduled to be broadcast from October 7th, 2017 as a TV animation) as first introduction at Kansai area.

The original work "Land of the Lustrous" by manga artist Haruko Ichikawa (serialized in Kodansha's Afternoon magazine) depicts the World of the distant future, where various gems grow and develop while fighting enemies try to capture them. Vividly depicting these gems as characters full of unique individuality, "Land of the Lustrous" is a work that allows us to savor the fascination of jewellery from a new angle.

Gaining inspiration from the world of "Land of the Lustrous", as it starts broadcasting as a TV animation from October 7th, 2017, TASAKI will offer 27 variations of necklace which express the images of the 25 characters for a limited period. Designed with TASAKI's iconic jewellery "balance", they combine lustrous pearls with diamonds and other gems with various colours. (available only in limited numbers, some products can be made to order)

The lineup includes three items with round brilliant cut Diamonds set in different kinds of base metal, rough Diamond items, and designs featuring Yellow and Black coloured Diamonds. The colour stones include gems of various colours, such as Alexandrite, Red Beryl, Euclase, Benitoite, Padparadscha Sapphire, Morganite, Bicolour Tourmaline, Rutilated Quartz, Ghost Quartz and Spheene. In addition, rare rough stones will be displayed at the event, allowing visitors to even more deeply enjoy TASAKI's unique world of jewellery.

For visitors who purchase items in this collection during the event, we have prepared a special tabloid which includes Haruko Ichikawa's special illustration and an original tote bag (both available only in limited numbers).

We hope you will visit the event and savor this profound world of gems sublimated into a brilliant lineup of fashion jewellery through the collaboration between TASAKI and "Land of the Lustrous".
