Extending our deepest sympathies to the victims of the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake
TASAKI Online Charity Project "MAGOKORO JAPAN 2017 for KUMAMOTO"
Donation Report

TASAKI (TASAKI & Co., Ltd.; Kobe Headquarter Office: 6-3-2 Minatojima Nakamachi, Chuo-ku, Kobe; Tokyo Headquarter Office: 5-7-5 Ginza, Chuo-ku, Tokyo; Board Director & CEO: Toshikazu TAJIMA) is delighted to report that we've donated the total sales amount of ¥1,800,000 (for breakdown see below) from the "TASAKI Online Charity Project 'MAGOKORO JAPAN' 2017 for KUMAMOTO" launched on April 14th, 2017 to the General Incorporated Association FOR KUMAMOTO PROJECT on February 28th, 2018. FOR KUMAMOTO PROJECT ( <http://www.forkumamoto.org> ) focuses on education and develops activities to provide content to support the hearts and minds of children such as "Kumamon Dream School".

The "TASAKI Charity Project 'MAGOKORO JAPAN'" was first initiated in 2011 to support the victims of the Great East Japan Earthquake, and has also been carrying out activities to support recovery efforts following the 2016 Kumamoto Earthquake since 2016. Each year, TASAKI has created special jewellery featuring multiple hearts nestled together to represent a strong bond of love, and donates all of the proceeds directly to groups that work with victims of the two earthquakes.

TASAKI is committed to helping people rebuild their lives in the aftermath of the earthquakes through the "TASAKI Charity Project 'MAGOKORO JAPAN'".
