

TASAKI Launches Three New Series from 'TASAKI COLLECTION LINE'

TASAKI (TASAKI & Co., Ltd.; Kobe Head office: 6-3-2 Minatojima Nakamachi, Chuo-ku, Kobe; Tokyo Head office: 5-7-5 Ginza, Chuo-ku, Tokyo; Board Director & CEO: Toshikazu TAJIMA) is to launch new jewellery from the 'TASAKI COLLECTION LINE' designed by designer Thakoon Panichgul, on Wednesday, February 6th, 2019. A fresh new interpretation of iconic TASAKI design, these three new series have been created by Thakoon Panichgul to mark a decade since the start of his collaboration with TASAKI on their 'TASAKI COLLECTION LINE' in 2009.

The 'kinetic' and 'cosmic' series evolved from the iconic TASAKI 'balance' series. 'kinetic' is inspired by the energy of the cosmos, while 'cosmic' is designed to symbolise infinity, bringing together the pearl with curved lines reminiscent of the orbit of the moon or the earth to represent the infinite universe or eternal love.

The 'refined rebellion neo' series, meanwhile, is a reinterpretation of the iconic 'refined rebellion' series. These novel pieces feature the pearl at the centre of stud-like form drawn in 18K yellow gold.

Enjoy the modern and beautiful world of TASAKI with the new 'TASAKI COLLECTION LINE' jewellery designed by Thakoon Panichgul, created with a commitment to high quality, creativity and craftsmanship which is unique to TASAKI.
