TASAKI Unveils New TASAKI Atelier Jewellery at Creative Director Prabal Gurung's Fall 2019 Show

-Fashion Model Hikari Mori Takes the Runway-

TASAKI (TASAKI & Co., Ltd.; Kobe Head Office: 6-3-2 Minatojima Nakamachi, Chuo-ku, Kobe; Tokyo Head Office: 5-7-5 Ginza, Chuo-ku, Tokyo; Board Director & CEO: Toshikazu TAJIMA) unveiled new jewellery including its TASAKI Atelier line at Creative Director Prabal Gurung's Fall 2019 show during New York Fashion Week. The international lineup of models gracing the runway for the show included Hikari Mori from Japan, making her debut at New York Fashion Week.

TASAKI is a luxury jeweller that consistently delivers innovative, sophisticated designs through partnerships with creators from around the world. Among them is the high-end TASAKI Atelier line designed by the brand's Creative Director Prabal Gurung.

Held on February 10, the show featured new high-end TASAKI Atelier line jewellery crafted with the finest pearls and diamonds to imbue a modern, luxurious feel, as well as a variety of stunningly unique drop earrings inspired by the far and middle east, formed with curves and non-convention shapes to adorn the ear and highlight the power of femininity. TASAKI will release pieces from this collection in fall 2019.

We invite you to explore TASAKI's world of innovative beauty, created by TASAKI's Creative Director Prabal Gurung.
